OLD SWINFORD HOSPITAL

The Visit of Her Royal Highness

THE DUCHESS OF GLOUCESTER

FRIDAY, 21st JANUARY, 1994

Notes

REFRESHMENTS

These are available for parents and visitors in the School Dining Hall from 2.40 p.m. after Her Royal Highness has entered Dudley House.

Parents of Baxter boys are invited to have refreshments in the Sixth Form Club after Her Royal Highness has proceeded to the Creative Technology Centre at about 3.10 p.m.

THE SCHOOL BRASS BAND

The School Brass Band will be performing at various times both in Tom Court and the Quad.

FACILITIES

Facilities are available in the Lobby outside the Dining Hall (for Ladies and Gentlemen) and outside Great Hall (Ladies). The facilities in Founder's and the Sixth Form Club are not available.

BAXTER HOUSE / THE SIXTH FORM CLUB / THE CREATIVE TECHNOLOGY CENTRE / SCHOOL LIBRARY

Parents and visitors are asked not to enter these buildings, except for Baxter parents visiting the Sixth Form Club for their reception.

THE LINE-UP

Houses should assemble as follows:

FOSTER/FOLEY in the area of Foley and Sanatorium

WITLEY by the Five-A-Side

DUDLEY/MAYBURY in front of the Science Laboratories

BAXTER/PROSPECT in the Quad

Non-Teaching Staff should assemble in the Quad near the exit from Founder's.

Parents should join their son's House as appropriate.

PRIZE COMPETITION

The Chaplain, The Revd. R. H. Darroch, has composed an apt Latin couplet in honour of Her Royal Highness's visit. This is printed on the back cover.

The first boy to present the Chaplain with a correct translation will receive a £10 Book Token.

PROGRAMME

2.30 p.m.	Her Royal Highness arrives at Foster Car Park.
2.33 p.m.	The Chairman of Feoffees will escort Her Royal Highness, via Tom Court, to Baxter House where he will formally welcome Her and invite Her Royal Highness to cut a ribbon and enter Baxter House.
2.38 p.m.	Her Royal Highness will tour Baxter House.
3.00 p.m.	Her Royal Highness will unveil a portrait of Richard Baxter, donated to the school by Dr. Adrian Hill, Parent and Old Foleyan, and a commemorative plaque.
3.05 p.m.	Her Royal Highness will be escorted to the Sixth Form Club.
3.10 p.m.	Her Royal Highness will visit the Creative Technology Centre.
3.20 p.m.	The Chairman of the Feoffees will escort Her Royal Highness to the Library, via the Quad, for a private reception.
3.30 p.m.	Her Royal Highness will be escorted to Foster Car Park, past the Barn Block and the Science Laboratories. Parents, boys and visitors are invited to line the route.
3.45 p.m.	Her Royal Highness will depart by car from Foster Car Park.

Grata patrona redis nobis, Glevana ducissa.
Totaque sic clamat iam patefacta domus.

R.H.D.

