T. JOHN GWYNN HOUSE
NEWPORT ST
WORCESTER WR1.3N

20-11-17.

Hi Rob,

A few things that I pick my dogs only the dustbin will want, but might be of interest to you and Others. The Telegram without a cover is the first one of our intake (all the Salvetta) Xmas 1938 In your one letter you mentioned Charlie Harris who if my memory is right had a brother, (I think) by the name of Bob, is he still with us? Sorry to hear of Tom Forrester passing a good friend of mine. R.I.P.

The cutting out of our local paper which follows the affairs of the Worcestershire Regiment mentions x Ind Lt. G. Stone who by the end of the year had reached Captain he was always known as Stoo.

The other cutting from last weeks

Roger went to Wickenford School as I did, but have come to O.S.H. in 1925 or 6. I always new him as Des.

Well the clock has just gone into 21-11-17 so I will close now hoping you can read my writing the old fingers dont work to well due to and old friend

Arthur Wrightson.

Any way the Best of Christmas's to you and yours.

F. A. Grosvenor.

AT THE FRONT

● 1st Batt: Working party of 300 other ranks found.

● 2nd Batt: Batt went for work on the range. Adjutant`s Parade am.

● 2/7th Batt: 2nd Lt HC Stone went to hospital. Lt T Coats allotted to 61st Division in the Signals Coy.

● 4th Batt: Weather very bad. Coys reorganising the platoons.

ON THE HOME FRONT

● INSTEAD OF SUGAR USE CHYMOL – Many are the occasions on which this wonderfully concentrated food will save your sugar and do far more good. For instance, it will sweeten the children's milk and ensure that they fully digest it. On bread or biscuits, it will serve for jam and its pure, strengthening nourishment will build up vigour of mind and body. Its price has not gone up.

● THE TRIBUNALS – WORCESTER CITY – The Water and Sewerage Committee applied for Ernest Harrison (36) married, with four children, boiler stoker at the Waterworks. He was previously rejected and was now passed B1. Mr W Sharpe said that they were running three shifts and it was necessary to have a stoker for each shift. The other two were over military age. It was suggested that they got another man, but Mr Sharpe said they had tried and failed. Conditional until a substitute found.
